

Gouverneur Jewel

PRIVATE VILLA

Oh là là! Villa Gouverneur Jewel, with its one gorgeously bedecked bedroom, is all that the name implies. Essentially a (very sexy) accomodation, Villa Gouverneur Jewel's dramatic black, white and gold décor and elegant chandelier invoke mid-century Hollywood-style glam and the focal point is a 4 poster king size bed. A state-of the-art pop-up TV is at the foot of the bed, perfect for watching romantic movies. Bogie and Bacall? The sumptuous en suite bath includes a gold claw-foot soaking tub, a pair of onyx-black sinks and a rain-head shower tucked away behind an alcove. There is a private WC and a steam room with a bench for the ultimate in relaxation. A compact, open-air kitchenette with a bar is located on the pool terrace and is adjacent to a covered à deux dining spot. The circular pool, with tiered bench seating and a gold-tiled floor is designed for lolling lovers. A lovely view of the sea is framed by palm trees. Champagne should be chilled and at the ready.
