

Colibris

PRIVATE VILLA

If ever a villa could be described as a honeymoon haven Villa Colibris is it. With oodles of privacy, a sensational view and fiery Caribbean sunsets – what's not to love? A dramatic king-size 4 poster draped bed is the focal point of what is essentially a suite with an elegantly furnished little sitting area. The spacious en suite bath with its oversized double vanity and its WOW shower is Architectural Digest worthy. An adjacent air-conditioned hallway with a private WC leads to the huge his-and-her closet cum dressing area. The delightful infinity pool offers guests a panorama of Lorient and in the distance, the island of St. Maarten – while they relax and sunbathe. The terrace features a compact, covered open-air kitchen, ample outdoor living and a perfect spot for dining under the stars. So romantic.
