

LAO

PRIVATE VILLA

The contemporary three bedroom, three-tier, Villa LAO, has much to offer guests seeking a St. Barth villa vacation. It sits above the quaint fishing village of Corossol, affords gorgeous views, early winter sunsets, and is close to Gustavia for dining and shopping. A lower level double garage houses the entrance where a stairway leads to the main level and its expansive terrace with an oversized heated infinity pool. A gazebo provides shade for relaxing and is just the spot to gather for sunset cocktails. Indoors, a breakfast bar divides the sleek, gourmet kitchen and dining area from the living room. A separate air-conditioned media room is one of the many special features that include a fitness room and a waterfall. Each of the three spacious bedrooms is on a different level ensuring privacy. They all have a dressing room, a private terrace, and a Jacuzzi. TVs descend from the ceiling. The master suite is on the top level with ocean views, and the two guest bedrooms are main level and lower level respectively. Each has a bathroom has a double vanity and shower.
