

Anse Etoilée

PRIVATE VILLA

Honeymooners or those simply seeking a romantic getaway will find just what they're looking for at Villa Anse Etoilée. A king four-poster is the focal point of the bedroom where screened glass sliders open to the deck. It's just a hop-skip—and a jump—from the bed into a delightful plunge pool. A well-appointed bath with a private WC is just adjacent to the bedroom. An island divides the compact kitchen from the dining and living room areas and there's a love seat for snuggling up and watching TV (Dish Network) Here too, sliders open to the deck. A poolside portico provides shade for relaxing and alfresco dining, but chairs and chaise lounges are at the ready for sun seekers. St. Jean Beach is just a 5-7 minute walk and the villa offers a nice view of the bay.
